TOWNSHIP TO SPONSOR SEMINAR FOR STUDENTS

On March 1, the Hanover Township Committee on Youth (COY) is sponsoring a free seminar for students in 8th to 12th grade featuring local business owners and their stories of entrepreneurial success. Starting at 7:00PM in the Streamwood High School cafeteria, students will engage the featured panel in question and answer, a planned activity and hear how the entrepreneurs built their business from the ground up.

Local business owners on the panel include: Cuco Chagoya, Panaderia El Amigo & Mariscos El Amigo; Kevin Navarro, State Farm Agent; Dawna Watson, Re/Max All Pro, Nicholas Scola, college student with a web development business and Dr. Arlene Rodriguez, Hanover Park Animal Care Center.

As an extra bonus, some U-46 teachers are giving extra credit for attending. Food and refreshments will be also provided.

COY is a Township advisory committee comprised of 10 youth and adult volunteer members that meet once a month. The mission of COY is to be a catalyst for promoting well being among Township youth and families through family education, outreach and the fostering of community connections with an emphasis on positive youth development.

For questions, or to register for the seminar, please call 630-483-5799 or email coy@hanover-township.org.
