Hoffman Estates Mayor to host Hanover Township art show

Hoffman Estates Mayor Bill McLeod will host an art reception on Tuesday, November 24 for Hanover Township senior artists to showcase their recent project, “I-90 Labor”, paintings celebrating the men and women who work on our Illinois highways. The reception will be held from 5:30PM – 7:00PM at the Hoffman Estates Village Hall, 1900 Hassell Road. This event is free and open to the public.

Artists will be onsite to talk about their work on display. Light refreshments will also be served.

“I am honored to help showcase the artwork of the senior artists in our community,” said Hoffman Estates Mayor Bill McLeod. “A lot of thought went into these paintings and it’s a great tribute to the work being done on the toll way.”

The mayor will also provide an update on the construction project at the I-90/Barrington Road interchange.

“The Township’s senior art programs are regionally known for their creative and professional quality work,” said Steve Caramelli, Hanover Township Trustee and senior committee liaison. “This is a great opportunity not only to honor our local artists, but to also learn more about Township programming.”

Last year 212 Township seniors participated in 124 different art classes.
