Hanover Township honors senior volunteers

The Hanover Township Department of Senior Services recognized over 220 senior volunteers at the annual volunteer award recognition luncheon on April 21 at the Seville in Streamwood. The Township senior volunteers provided over 22,105 hours of service in FY16 in the areas of senior programming, home delivered meals, clerical work, and lunch program assistance.

“We are fortunate to have such dedicated senior volunteers that allow us to offer programs and services in a cost effective, efficient manner,” said Brian P. McGuire, Hanover Township Supervisor. “This is a small way to show our gratitude and remind them that their hard work does not go unnoticed or unappreciated.”

Award winners include: Geraldine Gipp, Volunteer of the Year; Jeannine and William Havlik, Home Delivered Meals Drivers of the Year; Maria Roman, Most Versatile Volunteer of the Year; and the volunteer staff of the Stars-N-Stripes Café, Community Partner of the Year.

For more information on senior volunteer opportunities, please call the Hanover Township Senior Center at (630) 483-5600.
