Hanover Township Seniors to showcase art for tenth year

Hanover Township seniors will be showcasing their artwork in the Township’s 10th annual “Got Art?” art show to run through the month of August. Residents are encouraged to view the hundreds of pieces created by seniors in art classes at the Hanover Township Senior Center and elsewhere.

On Thursday, August 4, the public is invited to attend an artist reception at the Senior Center, 240 S. Route 59, Bartlett, from 1:00PM – 4:00PM. Light refreshments will be served; live music will also be performed.

“From seasoned artists who have been perfecting their craft for years, to seniors that just recently took up a new hobby, the Township’s senior art show has it all,” said Brian P. McGuire, Hanover Township Supervisor. “It is amazing to see the different styles of talent from our residents.”

In FY16, 167 Township seniors participated in 119 art classes at the Senior Center.

Celebrating ten years, art students reflected on their favorite class memory.

“The first time I painted, I never realized I had the talent,” resident Charlotte Turnbull explains. “The art show encourages other people from the outside to see what seniors are capable of accomplishing.”

For more information on senior art classes or the art show, please call the Hanover Township Senior Center at (630) 483-5600.
