Hanover Township to host ninth annual community health and wellness expo

Hanover Township, Cook County Commissioner Timothy O. Schneider, and Victory Centre of Bartlett will host the ninth annual “Just for the Health of It” community health and wellness expo on Thursday, September 15, from 1:00 – 5:00PM, at the Hanover Township William Tiknis Campus at 240 S. IL Route 59, Bartlett. Free and open to the public, residents can take advantage of over a dozen free health screenings for bone density, veins, vision and more.

“In its ninth year, this event keeps growing and getting better,” said Brian P. McGuire, Hanover Township Supervisor. “Hopefully for many residents the free screenings are the first step on a long road to a healthier life style and the Township is excited to host this event for the community.”

Last year, hundreds of residents attended the expo to take advantage of the free health screenings and receive other important information on their overall wellness.

“The Victory Centre of Bartlett is proud to co-sponsor this important event” said Vicki Striegel, Executive Director of Victory Centre of Bartlett. “The health expo has excellent programs and services for residents of all ages to take advantage of and we are pleased to partner with the Township and Commissioner Schneider on this great event.”

In addition to the free health screenings, attendees will also be able to participate in raffles, chair massages and free food samples from the Stars N’ Stripes café. Back again this year will be a kid’s area featuring a petting zoo, bouncy castle, and face painting.

“This is a great event that has grown in size year after year,” said Commissioner Schneider.

“There are resources available here for the entire family to learn how they can live a healthy lifestyle.”
